

LAMBETH PALACE LIBRARY EVENTS

November 2017 – July 2018

Thursday 9 November, 6pm (admittance not before 5.30pm)

Professor Nicholas Orme (University of Exeter): 'A Very Short History of England's Cathedrals'.

An expert on the history of medieval children and education, Nicholas Orme's most recent book is on the history of England's cathedrals. This event will offer an opportunity to see the Library's exhibition of material relating to Martin Luther and the Reformation.

All are welcome, but those wishing to attend should book a free ticket at www.nicholasormelecture.eventbrite.co.uk, or email juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 3 November.

Thursday 14 December, 6pm (admittance from 5.30pm)

Christmas reception for the Friends of Lambeth Palace Library and their guests, in the Guard Room, Lambeth Palace.

Tickets £10 per head, to include wine and mince pies. To book, please send names in advance to Juliette Boyd, Lambeth Palace Library: juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org or telephone 020 7898 1400, not later than Friday 8 December.

Tuesday 6 February, 5.15pm (admittance not before 4.45pm)

Dr David Starkey: 'Henry VIII and Luther: A Reappraisal'.

David Starkey is the author of important books on Henry VIII and the Tudor court and is well known as a regular contributor to both radio and television.

In association with the University of London seminar on the Religious History of Britain 1500-1800. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend should book a free ticket at www.davidstarkeylambeth.eventbrite.co.uk, or email juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 2 February.

Thursday 19 April, 6pm-7.30pm (admittance not before 5.45pm)

An evening with the Library's conservators, with an opportunity to view the conservation studio and discuss techniques and treatments with the Library's conservation staff.

Tickets £15 per head (£10 for Friends of Lambeth Palace Library), to include a glass of wine. Numbers will be limited. Please note that the conservation studio is reached by a medieval spiral staircase. Friends and guests are welcome, but please book in advance with Juliette Boyd, Lambeth Palace Library, juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org or telephone 020 7898 1400, not later than Friday 13 April.

Tuesday 8 May, 5.15pm (admittance not before 4.45pm)

Professor Nicholas Tyacke (University College, London): “‘Mysteries” Demystified: The Making and Meaning of the Lambeth Articles (1595)’.

Nicholas Tyacke’s books include Altars Restored: the changing face of English religious worship, 1547-c.1700.

In association with the University of London seminar on the Religious History of Britain 1500-1800. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend should book a free ticket at www.nicholastyackelambeth.eventbrite.co.uk, or email juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 4 May.

Tuesday 5 June, 5.30pm (admittance not before 5pm)

'New Perspectives on Seventeenth-Century Libraries':

Robyn Adams (Centre for Editing Lives & Letters, UCL), 'Donations to the Bodleian Library in the Early Seventeenth Century'

Katie Birkwood (Royal College of Physicians Library), 'Digging Deeper into the Marquess of Dorchester's Library'

Jacqueline Glomski (Centre for Editing Lives & Letters, UCL), 'Religion and Libraries in the Seventeenth Century'.

This event will showcase some recent research on library formation, both public and private, in the seventeenth century. Three short talks will deal with patterns of book selection and acquisition as revealed by individual practice and in seventeenth-century theoretical writing on bibliography. The presentations will discuss the potential for research on seventeenth-century libraries and the application of digital methods to this research.

In association with the University of London research seminar on the History of Libraries. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend should book a free ticket at www.seventeenthcenturylibraries.eventbrite.co.uk, or email juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org not later than Friday 25 May.

Thursday 5 July, 2.30pm (admittance not before 2pm)

Annual General Meeting of the Friends of Lambeth Palace Library, followed by a lecture by Dr Peter Blayney: ‘Printing the 1559 Book of Common Prayer: Events Without Precedent’.

An authority on the history of the early modern book trade, Peter Blayney’s most recent book is The Stationers’ Company and the Printers of London, 1501–1557 (2013).

This meeting, open to Friends of Lambeth Palace Library, will be followed by tea. Friends should book in advance with Juliette Boyd, Lambeth Palace Library, Juliette.boyd@churchofengland.org or telephone 020 7898 1400, not later than Friday 22 June.

Please join the Friends of Lambeth Palace Library
<http://www.lambethpalacelibrary.org/content/friends>