

LAMBETH PALACE LIBRARY EVENTS
September – December 2019

Wednesday 18 September, 5pm (entrance not before 4.30pm)

Dr Megan Aldrich: ‘Thomas Rickman, a Quaker Architect and the Anglicans’.

This lecture will be accompanied by an exhibition of architectural plans from the Incorporated Church Building Society collection and will be followed by a drinks reception.

In association with the University of Liverpool conference, ‘Architectural Patronage in an Age of Reform’. Tickets for the lecture and reception, price £10, may be booked at <https://payments.liv.ac.uk/conferences-and-events/events-at-liverpool/school-of-histories-languages-and-cultures/architectural-patronage-in-an-age-of-reform-17601840> no later than Tuesday 10 September.

Monday 23 September, 5pm (entrance not before 4.30pm)

Bishop Richard Harries: ‘Wanting more and wanting better’.

The usual assumption is that Christianity disapproves of us wanting things. Thomas Traherne takes a very different line, saying we don’t want enough. But when we have moved out of innocent bliss into a world of sin and suffering, how do we manage this wanting?

In association with the Traherne Society. All are welcome, but those wishing to attend should book a free ticket at <https://richardharrieslambeth.eventbrite.co.uk> or email melissa.harrison@churchofengland.org not later than Tuesday 17 September.

Wednesday 4 December, 6pm (admittance from 5.30pm)

Christmas reception for the Friends of Lambeth Palace Library and their guests, in the State Drawing Room, Lambeth Palace.

Tickets £10 per head, to include wine and mince pies. To book, please send names in advance to Melissa Harrison, melissa.harrison@churchofengland.org or telephone 020 7898 1400, not later than Friday 22 November.
