

Lambeth Palace Library Research Guide List of Lambeth degrees (by name)

by Miss Melanie Barber

The list below gives Lambeth degrees arranged alphabetically. See also lists arranged by date and type of degree. The list covers the period 1539-1995, but note that there are gaps in the early records. The dates given are the dates of the faculties.

The central series of records documenting Lambeth degrees are those of the Faculty Office. See the following archive records:

- Faculty Office registers (ref: F I)
Ostensibly indexed to 1835 (see electronic archives catalogue), but there may be gaps in indexing. However, the volumes also have their own internal indexes.
- Faculty Office fiats (ref: F II)
From 1660. These are only intermittently entered in the archives catalogue. Having found an F I entry, you should be able to locate the associated F II documents (if they survive) by date.
- Vicar General Act Books (ref: VB 1)
Degrees recorded here 1663-1859 are entered in the archives database.

These formal records do not generally give extensive detail on why degrees were granted, although the F II documents can be informative in the late 17th century. Note that there is some correspondence on Lambeth degrees (and in some instances degrees refused) in the Archbishops' Papers (see the archives catalogue), but principally only from the late 19th century. It is often difficult to discern the precise reason for the conferment of degrees.

There are further lists held in the Library arranged by date:

- MS 1715 (list covering 1539-1948)
There are possibly omissions in this list: for instance, Peter Sandiford does not appear, yet is recorded as DD in the records.
- F VI/1 (registers covering 1883-1997)

Lambeth degrees in Australia, New Zealand and Melanesia are listed on pp. 349-50 of Anglicans in the Antipodes: an indexed calendar of the papers and correspondence of the Archbishops of Canterbury, 1788-1961, relating to Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific (ed. R. & L. Frappell, R. Withycombe, and R. Nobbs, 1999).

For further contextual information click here.

Note that Lambeth diplomas are not the same as Lambeth degrees. These were founded in 1905. For some records see the archives catalogue ref: LD, including LD/3 (record book of graduates, 1906-1953). See also printed books catalogue: List of those who hold the Lambeth Diploma in Theology and some information as to their work ... [1925-86] [ref: PB2385.L2].

Degrees and diplomas are administered from Lambeth Palace to whom queries on current practice or recent degrees should be directed.
